

Promoting the Welfare of Youths

On the 14th of September, the Lionheart Society attended a most prestigious conference to promote the welfare of Youths through charity.

We were presented with this opportunity by the Director-General of the Department of Children and Youth, and the Minister of Social Development and Human Security, Police General Adul Saengsingkaew as they had studied our previous ventures and deemed us to be a suitable candidate for the event. Throughout the day we were approached by many officials asking us about our projects as they found it truly remarkable that people of our age are able to undertake such daunting tasks and were duly impressed as we detailed the events of our various trips to rural schools. We are looking forward to more opportunities such as this and we hope that we can continue to be valuable and active contributors to the society.

The Lionheart Society

Lionheart Society impresses government officials with its commitment to charity

On Monday 14th September, my co-leader Pete (S10) and I, along with the two other project managers of the Lionheart Society, Tabby (S10) and Poon (So11), were invited to an activities exhibition at the Ministry of Social Development and Human Security. Throughout the day we had many exciting opportunities, from thinking on the spot as Channel 3 and MCOT interviewed us, to interacting with various people from different age groups.

The highlight of the event was meeting Mrs. Rarinthip Sirorat, Director-General of the Department of Children and Youth, and the Minister of Social Development and Human Security, Police General Adul Saengsingkaew. They asked us about our charity projects, such as growing our own vegetables and selling them to raise money to help people living in poverty, which we explained in detail.

During the event, we promoted our charity to lots of people (both adults and children) and encouraged them to 'to give back to society', in the words of our co-founder of the Society, Pat.

I feel honored to represent Harrow Bangkok at such a memorable event and I hope that the School and the Lionheart Society will be recognised by growing numbers of people in the future. I would like to say a big thank you to Khun Kru Khanitha and everyone who has made this day possible for us.

Prodpran (K11)

