

On the 20th of August 2011, Saturday at 9:00 – 12:00, the Lionheart Society performed its last project for this academic year. We have successfully performed our “Teach to Reach” project at the Hua Lotchak Tuek Daeng, Tau Poon District, Bangkok. It was a great opportunity for us to share our time and knowledge to the unprivileged children of this poor community.

On this occasion, we were able to teach children from ages 7 – 13 years. The children were divided into three groups (according to age) and our members were assigned accordingly based on the time table below. In addition to this, English, Maths and Art were also taught to the children.

Group	Time
	9:00 - 9:50	10:00 - 10:50	11:00 - 11:50
1	English Pat & Prim	Maths Peak & Oak	Art Praewa
2	Art Praewa	English Pat & Prim	Maths Peak & Oak
3	Maths Peak & Oak	Art Praewa	English Pat & Prim

We taught continuously for three hours, it was very hot and tiring, yet it was truly worthwhile. Our encounter with these children has taught us that real joy is not just pursuing our own self-interests but rather, it is the discovery of making the lives of the people around us more bearable and pleasant. Our regard for the poor and needy helps us mature with a sense of mission and through sharing our knowledge with them will no doubt enable them to grow up with a brighter future ahead of them. We hope that this project had served as an inspiration and encouragement to the children of Hua Lotchak Tuek Daeng community as we impart to them the value of education and the power of knowledge as an important tool to achieve success and eventually freedom from poverty.
